Guy Carpenter Appoints Claude Lefebvre Head of Instrat® Unit's European Operations

New York, November 2, 2009

Guy Carpenter & Company, LLC announced today that it has named Claude Lefebvre the Head of Operations for its Instrat® quantitative analysis and modeling services unit. Based in London, Mr. Lefebvre will lead Guy Carpenter's Instrat teams in both the UK and Continental Europe, reporting to Chris McKeown, CEO of Global Analytical and Specialty Practices.

Mr. Lefebvre brings more than 17 years of underwriting, actuarial and reinsurance broking experience to Guy Carpenter. Previously, he was the Head of Casualty at Arch Reinsurance Ltd. in Bermuda, where he led the firm's North American and international liability reinsurance operations. Prior to joining Arch in 2006, Mr. Lefebvre was Managing Director in Guy Carpenter's Toronto office, responsible for business development and reinsurance broking. He also has served as a Vice President at CNA Reinsurance and as a Vice President at London Life Casualty Reinsurance Company, as well as a Consulting Actuary at both Arthur Andersen LLP and Tillinghast.

Mr. Lefebvre is a Fellow of both the Casualty Actuarial Society and the Canadian Institute of Actuaries and is a member of the American Academy of Actuaries. He received bachelor's degrees in actuarial sciences and biochemistry from Université Laval in Quebec.

QUOTE

Chris McKeown, CEO of Global Analytical and Specialty Practices, Guy Carpenter & Company, LLC

"We are very pleased to welcome Claude back to Guy Carpenter. He brings a high level of strategic insight and strong leadership to our Instrat team. Claude will be instrumental in helping us expand our capabilities and build on our range of services for clients in the UK and across Continental Europe. He will work closely with Henry Keeling, President and CEO of Guy Carpenter's international operations, and regional management in order to execute our business strategies while working alongside our established Instrat colleagues in London and Continental Europe."
