Guy Carpenter Announces Senior Appointments In Buenos Aires, Argentina Office

New York, March 1, 2010

Guy Carpenter & Company, LLC, the leading global risk and reinsurance specialist, today announced two senior appointments in its Buenos Aires office. Roberto Glogau has been named Guy Carpenter's Country Head in Argentina. He will be responsible for developing business, managing current operations and deepening relationships with the firm's clients throughout the country. Alberto Montepagano joins as Senior Broker, focused on strengthening Guy Carpenter's client relationships and developing new facultative business.

Mr. Glogau, a highly respected reinsurance veteran, has 40 years of industry experience in the Argentina market. Before joining Guy Carpenter, he served as Energy & Mining Commercial & Placement Director at Marsh Argentina. He will report directly to Aidan Pope, Guy Carpenter's CEO of Latin America & Caribbean Operations.

Mr. Montepagano was most recently Senior Broker at Marsh Re Argentina. He also worked with INdeR for several years and with other preeminent brokers throughout Argentina. He will report to Mr. Glogau.

QUOTE

Aidan Pope, CEO of Latin America & Caribbean Operations, Guy Carpenter & Company

"The addition of Roberto and Alberto will help us strengthen our technical, administrative and commercial capabilities across the region. Their market insight, industry experience and deep relationships will be critical as we continue to build on our client base in Argentina while delivering a broader and deeper set of services."
