Guy Carpenter Names Victoria Carter as Vice Chairman of International Operations

New York, March 22, 2010

Guy Carpenter & Company, LLC, the leading global risk and reinsurance specialist, today announced that it has named Victoria Carter as Vice Chairman of Guy Carpenter International.

In this role, Ms. Carter will be a key member of the Guy Carpenter International Leadership team and will be responsible for driving new business production across the International operations. She will report to Henry Keeling, President and CEO of Guy Carpenter International.

Ms. Carter has more than 30 years experience in the reinsurance industry. She was the first female founder of a Lloyd's intermediary and has operated in a number of senior executive positions within the broking sector. Most recently, she served as Chairman of UK & International operations of Towers Watson.

Ms. Carter will join Guy Carpenter following completion of existing employment and notice obligations with Towers Watson.
