Guy Carpenter Appoints Steve White as Chief Actuary

New York, September 23, 2010

Guy Carpenter & Company, LLC, the leading global risk and reinsurance specialist, today announced that Steve White has been promoted to Chief Actuary, effective immediately. He assumes the role previously held by Don Mango, who has been appointed Head of Global Advisory.

In his new role, Mr. White will focus on enhancing Guy Carpenter's actuarial standards and will continue leading the overall development of MetaRisk®, the industry's most transparent risk and capital decision tool.

Mr. White will be based in Seattle and will report to Mr. Mango.

Prior to joining Guy Carpenter in 2000, Mr. White worked at Swiss Re. Previously, he worked at Allstate Re, after beginning his actuarial career at Allstate Research and Planning Center. He is a graduate of Brigham Young University.

QUOTE

Bill Kennedy, CEO of Analytics, Capital Markets, Specialty Practices and Advisory, Guy Carpenter & Company, LLC

"Steve's appointment underscores Guy Carpenter's commitment to providing innovative, high-quality analytics and advisory services offerings. It also recognizes the leadership, technical expertise and practical experience that he has contributed to the GC Analytics team – to the ultimate benefit of our clients – over the past decade."
