

Hi, I'm Katie

Broking, San Francisco

MY ROLE AT GUY CARPENTER

I am a treaty broker out of the San Francisco office. I work closely with insurance companies and reinsurance companies to make sure their goals are met when it comes to risk transfer, reinsurance buying, financing, capacity and stability needs.

WHY I CHOSE A CAREER IN (RE)INSURANCE

I chose a career in reinsurance because it gave me the ability to work in a business with quality people, help solve problems and be exposed to a wide variety of complex challenges. I felt it was a career path that would challenge me but would also be very rewarding.

WHAT HAS SURPRISED ME THE MOST

Before I started my career as a reinsurance broker, I didn't realize the major importance of the reinsurance purchase. It is critical to insurance companies and therefore is a decision the executives at a company usually make. I also enjoy my role as a year round strategic advisor for clients. My career has taken me to many locations around the US and internationally!
