Guy Carpenter's Vicky Carter Named a 2012 'Woman to Watch' by Business Insurance

New York, December 3, 2012 – Guy Carpenter & Company, LLC, a leading global risk and reinsurance specialist, is pleased to announce that Victoria (Vicky) Carter has been named as one of Business Insurance magazine's 2012 'Women to Watch.'

Ms. Carter, Vice Chairman of International Operations for Guy Carpenter, is among the 25 elite insurance industry leaders recognized in Business Insurance's annual listing. The program salutes outstanding female executives for their exceptional accomplishments in commercial insurance, risk management, employee benefits, and other related fields. The recipients will be honored tomorrow at the Women to Watch Leadership Workshop and Awards Luncheon in New York.

Based in London, Ms. Carter is a member of Guy Carpenter's Board of Managers and the International Operating Committee. As a senior member of the firm's International Leadership Team and with more than 30 years of reinsurance experience, Ms. Carter plays an integral role in supporting and cultivating senior client and industry relationships and contributing to new business production in the International Markets. Among her additional professional achievements, Ms. Carter was also the first female founder of a Lloyd's intermediary.

The 2012 honorees were selected after an evaluation of nominations by Business Insurance senior editors. The nominees were chosen based on exceptional professional achievements, influence in the insurance marketplace, and contributions to the advancement of women in business on a global level.

QUOTE

Alex Moczarski, President and CEO, Guy Carpenter & Company

"Our ability to strategically advise and help our clients navigate the ever-changing global risk and insurance landscape is inextricably linked to the strength and capabilities of our people. Being recognized by Business Insurance's 'Women to Watch' showcases the extraordinary accomplishments, hard work and commitment Vicky has put forth for our company and we congratulate her on this terrific achievement."
