Guy Carpenter Appoints Head of European Casualty Strategy

London, February 26, 2013 – Guy Carpenter & Company, LLC, a leading global risk and reinsurance specialist, today announced that Georg Fuelles has been appointed as Head of European Casualty Strategy, effective March 1, 2013.

Based in Guy Carpenter's Zurich office, Mr. Fuelles will be involved in the management and support of the firm's Global Partners' Casualty accounts, with a particular focus on developing Casualty business in the DACH and CEE areas. He will report to Axel Floering, Managing Director, on an operational basis and to Morley Speed, Managing Director, on a strategic basis.

Mr. Fuelles joins Guy Carpenter from Partner Re where he held various Senior Underwriting positions in their Casualty Specialty unit, spanning a number of European markets and most recently Germany. He is a fully qualified lawyer and a Casualty specialist and has more than twelve years of industry experience, with particular expertise in International Product and Manufacturer's Liability.

Commenting on the appointment of Mr. Fuelles, Nick Frankland, CEO, EMEA Operations at Guy Carpenter, said: "Georg's expertise combines both a thorough understanding of the European Casualty sector with the considerable regional insight he has gained from working across a number of key territories. We see significant opportunities for further development of our European Casualty operations, particularly in the DACH and CEE regions, and he will play a leading role in helping us further enhance our position in this sector."
