Guy Carpenter Forms New Global Strategic Advisory Organization to Provide Clients with Enhanced Solutions

Rob Bentley Appointed President Vicky Carter Named Vice Chairman

NEW YORK, December 13, 2016 – Guy Carpenter & Company, LLC, a leading global risk and reinsurance specialist and a wholly owned subsidiary of Marsh & McLennan Companies (NYSE: MMC), today announced a newly-created Global Strategic Advisory organization comprised of its Advisory, Analytics, Structured Risk, M&A Advisory, Lloyd's Capital, and Business Intelligence capabilities.

Rob Bentley has been appointed President of Global Strategic Advisory. Mr. Bentley re-joins Guy Carpenter from Marsh, where most recently he ran the US and Canada Division. Mr. Bentley will report to Peter Hearn, President & CEO of Guy Carpenter, and will be based in New York. Mr. Bentley is a 30-year veteran of insurance and reinsurance broking, with significant executive and operational experience in analytics and software development.

“Guy Carpenter’s Strategic Advisory organization will add value to clients by delivering a globally consistent methodology for our advisory tools and capabilities,” said Mr. Hearn. “I am pleased to welcome Rob back to Guy Carpenter in this important leadership role.”

In connection with the creation of the Global Strategic Advisory organization, Vicky Carter has been appointed Vice Chairman of Global Strategic Advisory. Ms. Carter will also report to Mr. Hearn, and will continue to be based in London. A reinsurance industry veteran with more than 35 years of experience, most recently Ms. Carter served as Vice Chair of Guy Carpenter’s international operations, and previously has held multiple prominent leadership roles in the industry.
