Hi, I’m Clinton
Contract Associate, Seattle

MY ROLE AT GUY CARPENTER
As a Contract Associate it is my job to write the reinsurance treaty. No, it’s not a treaty between nations, it’s a treaty between the reinsurer and our client, the insurer, or ceding company. I work alongside our broking team to plan, draft and implement the reinsurance contracts, or treaties, on behalf of our clients. It’s my responsibility to clearly memorialize the agreed upon terms of the placement, ensuring the language used to describe and explain the reinsurance program is clear and concise.

WHY I CHOSE A CAREER IN (RE)INSURANCE
I did not choose a career in reinsurance, I stumbled into it and I’m glad I did. I am able to learn and work in a highly complex industry, with a multitude of career paths and great compensation opportunities. And it’s not boring. On a daily basis I am confronted with unique problems, and it is my responsibility to solve them. I may not have purposefully chosen reinsurance at the start, but I absolutely have chosen to pursue my career in the industry now that I know the challenges and opportunities it holds.

WHAT HAS SURPRISED ME THE MOST
What has surprised me most are my coworkers. I would have never imagined working alongside such a vast wealth of knowledge. On my first day, I was introduced to several individuals who had been in the industry for multiple decades. I’m lucky to be surrounded by so many people I can go to for information, suggestions or resources. It became very clear to me that when you get a position at Guy Carpenter, you stay.
